For Immediate Press Release

Plainville, CT: Saturday November 2, 2024

Effective IMMEDIATELY, the Town of Plainville and The Plainville Fire Marshal's Office have issued a temporary ban on all outdoor burning in Plainville. This includes all Businesses, Town Parks and residential properties.

This ban includes, but not limited to campfires, fire pits, charcoal grilling and yard debris. The State of Connecticut Department of Energy and Environmental Protection (DEEP) has banned these activities in state parks and other land they oversee.

The Forest Fire Danger Level remains EXTREME.

NO BURNING shall take place if the Connecticut DEEP fire danger level remains HIGH, VERY HIGH, EXTREME.

This order is issued by the Plainville Fire Marshal and Open Burning Official Ronald Dievert. Any questions please contact 860.793.0221 Extension 7172.
